

Kindy - Learning through Play

Dramatic Play - It looks like I'm playing, but I'm developing social skills, emotional skills, independence, oral language, my imagination, responsibility, and the executive function.

Sensory play - It looks like I'm playing, but I'm learning from hands on experiences rather than from verbal instruction. Children learn by moving, touching, exploring and discovering. They do this by using their five senses and movement. They are learning cooperation, negotiation, sharing, empathy &

Through a play based context to learning, children develop fundamental skills in literacy, numeracy and physical development which foster creativity and social skills.

Writing - It looks like I'm playing, but I'm developing eye-hand coordination, small motor skills, alphabet knowledge, self-confidence, vocabulary, and an interest in print.

Table Toys - It looks like I'm playing, but I'm developing small muscles, eye-hand coordination, attention span, social skills, and concepts about size, shape, colour pattern.

Kindy - Learning through Play

Dramatic play - Café in Kindy

Manipulatives - It looks like I'm playing, but I'm developing motor skills, math concepts (number, size, shape, space), oral language, social skills, eye-hand coordination, and my imagination.

Play dough fun.

Ava and Charlie - friendship